Reflection 4 – Day 4

‘No ear has heard, no eye has seen a God like you’ (Isaiah 64:4 NLV)

Isaiah knows within himself that God is too wonderful to imagine, too magnificent to comprehend and too faithful and loving to ever doubt. In his mind, why would anyone (in this case Israel & Judah) not want to repent and turn back to God?

There is no other God, no ear has or will ever hear a God like our God. There is no eye that has seen or will ever see a God like our God. Isaiah looked back throughout history to be reminded and assured of the many wonders that God had performed and his faithfulness and promises throughout the ages. He took heart, obediently following God, whilst also looking forward with eager expectation to all that God would one day do for His people. Unlike Isaiah, we live in the light of the Christmas and the Easter story and so what a history we have to remind us of the goodness and wonder of God.

What is it that makes God like no other for you?

Lord God,

We thank you that you breathed life into existence, that you made this world good. That you made us in your image, that we too were made good. We are so grateful that your desire is to be in relationship with your people, to redeem us, to save us and to see your creation one day restored when Christ returns. No ear has heard and no eye has seen a God like you.

Amen
